SERIAL 5888 NON-COMPLIANCE + VINDICTIVENESS

Normally a scholar is entitled to the fruit of his own scholarship, a litigant to what he wins in court.

These records show that the Department first determined to deny public information to Mr. Weisberg then saw to it that all his effort and cost would be in vain save for having ended further suppression.

Even the famed Percy Foreman had not obtained these identical records when he was Ray's counsel.

And Mr. Weisberg had completed his book. It was set in type when the Department saw to it that he would not recover those costs, either.
